Panjabrao Shamrao Deshmukh (27 December 1898 – 10 April 1965), also known as Bhausaheb Deshmukh was a social activist and a leader of farmers in India. He was born into a Maratha family at Papal in the Amravati district of Maharashtra on 27 December 1898, his family practiced agriculture. Dr. Panjabrao Deshmukh started the equality movement from his home. After the death of his father, his mother asked him to conduct the traditional activity "Shradhha" with Brahmins. He brought untouchable students' home from his school hostel and his mother treated them as Brahmins. His marriage ceremony was simple and held in Mumbai. After the marriage ceremony, when he reached Amravati, his friends convinced Deshmukh to give a party. He held a small dinner party for them. The meal was served by youths wearing white. After dinner, Bhausaheb stated that the servers were untouchables (violating the prohibition). Many such events were conducted by Dr. Deshmukh to remove untouchability from our society.
