Date: 11 April 2023

Time: 11:00 am

On April 11, 2023, at 11:00 am in the library of Shivaji Science College, Congress Nagar, Nagpur the birth anniversary of Mahatma Phule was celebrated. Mahatma Jotirao Govindrao Phule (11 April 1827 – 28 November 1890) was an Indian social reformer, social educator, intellectual, social worker, writer, philosopher, and revolutionary activist. He is also known as Mahatma Phule and "Jotiba Phule". In September 1873, he founded an organization called Satyashodhak Samaj in Maharashtra. He did many works for the upliftment of women, backward and untouchables. He was a strong supporter of providing education to all sections of the society. He was against caste-based division and discrimination prevalent in Indian society.

Their basic objectives were to get women the right to education, oppose child marriage, support widow marriage. Phule wanted to free the society from the trap of bad practices and superstitions. She spent her whole life educating women, making women aware of their rights. In 19th century women were not given education. Phule wanted to save men and women from discrimination. He built India's first school for girls in Pune. Phule was deeply distressed and saddened by the miserable condition of women at that time, so he was determined to bring about a revolutionary change in the society. He himself educated his wife Savitribai Phule. Savitribai Phule was India's first female teacher.

Hon'ble Principal of the College Prof. Mahendra P Dhore Sir saluted the Mahatma Phule by offering floral wreath. At the same time, the professors, teachers, and non-teaching staff of the college also offered floral tributes to Mahatma Phule. The teachers and non-teaching staff of the college were present in large numbers. Dr. Gajanan Jadhav, coordinator of value education and extension activities conducted the program.
