14. SWOT Analysis:

Strength:

- Versatile collection of books in the department.
- Permanent faculty of the department is a member of the subject examination committee and former member of board of studies, RTMNU, Nagpur.
- Regular evaluation of students.
- Remedial teaching to slow learners.
- Safe and secured environment for co-education.

Weakness:

- Average students seek admission.

Opportunities:

- Statistics as a subject has ample opportunities in private as well as Govt. departments.
- More opportunities are available to exhibit students' talent by organizing problem solving competition, project presentation competition, seminars, workshops and exhibitions at college and university level.

Threat/Challenge:

- Due to the pattern being MCQ could be a threat for performance of average students if they don't study thoroughly.
