Report

Activity Name: Constitution Day

Date: 26/11/2025

Place: College College Library.

Introduction:

The Constitution Day of India was celebrated with great enthusiasm on 26 November at Shri Shivaji Science College, Congress Nagar, Nagpur. The programme was organised in the college library to commemorate the adoption of the Indian Constitution on 26 November 1949. The event aimed to spread awareness about the importance, values, and principles of the Indian Constitution among students.

Programme Details:

The programme was attended by college teachers, non-teaching staff, NCC and NSS students. The event began with a brief introduction highlighting the significance of Constitution Day and the contribution of Dr. B. R. Ambedkar, the chief architect of the Indian Constitution.

Teachers addressed the students and explained the importance of the Constitution, fundamental rights, fundamental duties, and democratic values. Special emphasis was given to equality, justice, liberty, and fraternity as mentioned in the Preamble of the Constitution. NCC and NSS students actively participated, and the Preamble of the Indian Constitution was read aloud.

Action Taken Report:

- Created awareness about the Indian Constitution
- Highlighted constitutional values
- Encouraged students to respect their rights and duties
- Promoted unity and democracy

The celebration of Constitution Day was informative and inspiring. It helped students understand the importance of the Constitution in maintaining democracy in India. The programme concluded on a patriotic and positive note.
