Mr. Sandip V. Dautpure, NSS Co-Programme Officer

Dr. Sugandha Khangar, NSS Co-Programme Officer

Dr. Shilpa Gedam, NSS Co-Programme Officer

Dr. Shital Deshmukh, NSS Member

The National Service Scheme Unit of Shri Shivaji Science College arrived at the Fetri village venue to the 6 days residential "Shramsanskar Shibir."

The primary objective of this year's camp was to bridge the gap between urban education and rural development, fostering a sense of social responsibility.

Volunteers immediately began by organizing their accommodations and conducting a preliminary cleanliness drive around the base camp to set a standard for the week.

The evening concluded with an ice-breaking session where volunteers formed localized task committees.

Day 3: Tuesday, 24th February 2026

Yoga, Shramdan, Sanvidhan Jagar

and Guest Lecture

Monitored by:

Mr. Bhupendra T. Kumbhare, NSS Programme Officer

Mr. Sandip V. Dautpure, NSS Co-Programme Officer

Dr. Gajanan Jadhav, Assistant Professor

Dr. Sarang Dhote, Assistant Professor

The third day of the camp began with a regular Yoga and Meditation Session in the morning at 6:00 am to refresh the volunteers' minds and bodies.

Following breakfast at 7:00 am, the volunteers and students gathered for a comprehensive, 3-hour interactive session on the Indian Constitution (Sanvidhan Jagar).

The extended session covered fundamental rights, the duties of citizens, and the critical role of youth in upholding democratic values.

To make the learning process engaging, the lecture was paired with interactive "Constitution Games" tailored specifically for the students.

Students enthusiastically participated in a Constitutional Quiz, a Preamble puzzle-solving activity, and a role-playing game where they enacted real-life scenarios based on their Fundamental Rights.

These games successfully simplified complex civic concepts and made learning about the nation's democratic framework highly enjoyable.

The day concluded with a community dinner and a brief review of the important lessons learned.

A special lecture was conducted in evening session on “Aaple BhauSaheb Shikshan Maharshi Dr. Panjabrao Upakhya Bhausaheb Deshmukh” by Dr.G. L. Jadhao and “Intellectual Property Rights” by Dr. S. S. Dhote. The day ended with a vibrant cultural evening program.

Day 4: Wednesday, 25th February 2026

Yoga, Shramdan, Swachh Bharat Abhiyan and Guest Lecture

Monitored by:

Mr. Bhupendra T. Kumbhare, NSS Programme Officer

Mr. Sandip V. Dautpure, NSS Co-Programme Officer

Dr. J.K. Keche, Assistant Professor

Dr. Manish Wanjari, Assistant Professor

The morning 'Shramdaan' was dedicated to a massive tree plantation drive around the village school and the Mahanaubhav Ashram, planting over 50 native saplings.

Students actively participated for the task and cleaned the area of Vijan Sthali Mahanaubhav Ashram by removing the weeds, collecting garbage and disposing them in a proper way.

Following the cleanliness drive, a special enlightening lecture was delivered by the Saints of the ashram, who guided the youth on the values of selfless service, discipline, and community living.

An informative session was conducted on "Impact of Internet on the young generation", for increasing awareness among NSS volunteers and villagers by Dr. J. K. Keche.

Dr. Sugandha Khangar, NSS Co-Programme Officer

Dr. Shilpa Gedam, NSS Co-Programme Officer

Dr. Shital Deshmukh, NSS Member

The fifth day was entirely dedicated to organizing a vibrant Cultural Program. This event was conducted specifically in the presence of the teaching staff, students, and N.S.S. Volunteers, fostering a strong sense of team spirit and camaraderie among the attendees.

Volunteers enthusiastically performed various skits, dramas, and Nukkad Natak (street plays) that addressed crucial societal issues. These impactful performances focused on the eradication of superstitions, highlighted the critical importance of higher education and village sanitation, and creatively tackled modern challenges like social media addiction. The energy, dedication, and creativity displayed by the volunteers were highly praised by the attending professors and fellow students.
