The first session of the day was conducted by Dr. Arvind PatilBhagat, who delivered an insightful and thought-provoking lecture on the theme, "Communication and Collaboration are Core Skills, not Soft Skills!" In his address, Dr. Bhagat emphasized the importance of rethinking the way we categorize skills. He argued that communication and collaboration are not auxiliary "soft skills" but are in fact foundational, or "core skills," necessary for success in academia, professional life, and beyond.

Using the analogy, "Academic brilliance without communication is like owning a supercar without fuel," Dr. Bhagat underscored the critical need for students to be able to express their ideas clearly and work effectively with others. He emphasized that true education goes beyond textbooks and marksheets and involves building a strong foundation of interpersonal and professional competencies.

Dr. Bhagat encouraged students to actively engage in their own growth by creating digital portfolios, enrolling in certification and Value-Added Courses (VACs), participating in professional forums and student society chapters, and contributing to Sustainable Development Goal (SDG) initiatives. He introduced the concept of Training Needs Analysis (TNA) as a vital step in identifying personal learning gaps and addressing them strategically.

A significant part of his presentation focused on the implementation of the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020. He explained how the policy's flexible and student-centric framework allows for interdisciplinary learning and promotes holistic education through tools like the Academic Bank of Credits (ABC). Platforms such as SWAYAM, NPTEL, and the National Digital Library (NDL) were highlighted as accessible and powerful resources for students to learn at their own pace and expand their academic horizons.

Encouraging students to shift their focus from merely obtaining degrees to acquiring meaningful skills, Dr.Bhagat shared examples of inspiring figures such as Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam, Oprah Winfrey, and young innovators who transformed their failures into stepping stones toward success. He emphasized that curiosity, problem-solving abilities, and a mindset geared toward lifelong learning are the true drivers of sustained career growth.

In his concluding remarks, Dr.Bhagat urged students to be adaptable in a rapidly evolving global landscape shaped by technological advances such as artificial intelligence, biotechnology, and quantum computing. He emphasized the importance of continuous learning, with the mantra: "Learn, unlearn, and relearn."

The session was met with enthusiasm and appreciation by the students and faculty alike. It provided valuable insights into the evolving expectations of the academic and professional world and inspired students to embrace a more proactive and engaged approach to their education.

III.Action Taken

Following Dr.Bhagat's session, the college administration resolved to integrate the key takeaways into the broader academic and co-curricular ecosystem of the institution. The following actions were initiated: The college has proposed to introduce new Value-Added Courses aligned with industry needs and NEP guidelines. Students will be encouraged to register for relevant professional societies and forums, with dedicated faculty coordinators appointed for guidance. A Training Needs Analysis (TNA) survey will be conducted to assess students' skill gaps and personalize their learning pathways. Awareness programs and orientation sessions on NEP, ABC, and the use of platforms like SWAYAM and NPTEL will be scheduled in the upcoming semester. A student-led SDG Club is being formed to engage learners in community-based projects aligned with Sustainable Development Goals.

These initiatives aim to ensure that the core message of the session—empowering students with essential 21st-century skills—is translated into sustained institutional action.

Excellent program i like it... very helpful for anderstand.. thanks for organizing the wonderful program

Next time please provide snacks and some lunch for the students 🤔

Bring Mr Vishal Kharachwal for another session in our college

Sorry to say but I guess there should be clear judgment regarding prize distribution.. who are really talented they should get the prize.

Nice ...

Organization should be more specific and well set

Can be more general and less specific

It was good

Plz organise this type of programme every year

Nice ..

Please make sure that different programs do not overlap and we can get auditions dealt with before SIP begins. Because I participated in Anchoring for Elocution, I was unable to make it to the treasure hunt and also missed opportunity to audition for singing since all three were conducted in the same time frame.

The roof should be repaired of the conference hall because today due to heavy rain it starts to leak and students face problems of getting their dress and bag wet.

Their must be more sitting facility for student and faculty as well.

Please arrange these type program so that we get more and more information related to the college

No suggestions

Nice program

Please make this kind of program after exams end,we do not get enough time to prepare for exams.

Add some more activities

Nothing as an suggestion but there should be a time management...and thank you for giving such a nice guidance!

SIP was good

Some more cultural events should be conducted.

I WOULD HAVE GIVEN 5 STAR FOR PROGRAM COORDINATION INSTEAD OF 3 STAR , THE ONLY REASON I RATED LOW IS THAT THEY ORGANISED SPORTS ACTIVITIES PARALLEL TO DEBATE AND ELOCUTION, THIS IS UNFAIR FOR STUDENT WHO WANTED TO PARTICIPATE IN BOTH , THIS ALSO DIVIDED THE AUDIENCE - OTHERWISE OVERALL SIP PROGRAM WAS VERY WELL COORDINATED AND WELL MAINTAINED

I would like to suggest inviting Mr Vishal Kharachwal for another session in our college

More relation to maths

Mr. Vishal kharachaval sir should be invited as a guest for a session once again

No

The last day of the induction should be colorful to everyone

Do better next time.

Increase the number of chairs to improve the sitting arrangement

Repeat Vishal kharachwal speech

Plz off the fan or slow down its speed after programme starts.

FROM THE COLLEGES

Shivaji Science College

THE Students' Induction Programme (SIP) 2023 of Sri Ashish Education Society, Aramatti's Science College, Coimbatore Nagar commenced with great enthusiasm at the conference hall of the college. The inaugural session was graced by Dr. Richikesh Sornave, Superintendent of Police (SP) and Head of the Branch, Anti-Corruption Bureau, Central Bureau of Investigation (CBI), Nagpur, who was invited as the guest speaker.

In his thought-provoking and motivational address, Dr Sarvagave reminded the students and said, "You are the future of India, and with the demographic dividend in our favour, this is the right time to invest in education to reap huge future benefits."

Rehns taught on his own journey from a rural background, he urged students not to carry inferiority complex. He stressed that a job should not be the only source of motivation; rather, motivation must be a daily practice. "Motivation is everyone's necessity. Don't let it fade away. Wishes are seeds of life, and you are a farmer." —John Doe

Commenting on the influence of artificial intelligence (AI) and social media, he said, "Be masters of technology, not addicts. Use the internet as a supplement to be learnt, not as a distraction."

On the very first day of the program, he remarked, "Failure brings unhappiness, but it is natural. What matters is how you study your own mistakes and prepare for the next attempt. Don't give up." He further highlighted the difference between ability and capability; stating that while every one is able-bodied, practice and training transform abilities into enhanced capabilities. Concluding his speech, Dr. Senoane inspired students to keep learning, remain resilient, own their studies, and nurture a go-getter attitude. The Principal of the college Dr. O S Deshmukh, gave the students a detailed introduction of the college. He provided information about the various facilities and programs available at the college and urged the students to make the best possible use of the college. The inauguration was presided over by Principal Dr. O S Deshmukh, with Senior Professor Dr. Anil Beshrey and Dr. S V Ghimase. Convener, SIP present on the dais.

The day's proceedings began with the arrival of the Principal and guest, followed by the traditional lighting

De SV Ghentode introduced the objectives of the SIP and provided detailed information for the new students. This was followed by the introduction of the guest speaker, Dr. N. Kishor, who also delivered the state of the art

The day continued with the Principal's address in the second session, and cultural and sports activities in the third session, creating an engaging and inspiring start to the academic year.
