Rangoli Competition was organized by department of Microbiology and Biotechnology on 13th September 2025, under the chairmanship of Hon'ble Prof. Omraj Deshmukh, Principal, Science college Nagpur, Coordinator- Respected Prof. Atul Bobdey and Convener Dr. Pranita Gulhane. The Microbiology and Biotechnology Department successfully achieved its objectives of encouraging student innovation, fostering scientific thinking, and implementing the thoughts into beautiful art. The event not only allowed students to showcase their artistic skills but also encouraged creativity of theoretical knowledge into art in the form of rangoli. Total 17 students took part in the competition. Dr. Rupali Mahakhode ma'am and Ms. Apurva Fuladi ma'am judged the competition and selected three winners along with one consolation prize recipient. The prize distribution ceremony was graced by Hon'ble Chairman and Principal, Dr. Omraj Deshmukh, who expressed his admiration for the participants' creativity and dedication. The winneres were - first prize to Leena Gholse (3rd year Biotechnology Department), Second prize to Akhil Bipate (2nd year Biotechnology Department) and Third prize to Akansha Parate (1st year Microbiology Department), and consolation prize to Phalguni More (2nd year Biotechnology Department). The winning students received certificates from MBSI, and the college was honored with a memento from MBSI.

Action Taken: The competition served as a valuable platform for students to integrate artistic expression with scientific concepts. Total 17 students participated in the competition and the event was a resounding success, offering valuable insights and due recognition to students for their efforts. This experience fostered creativity and teamwork, allowing students to collaborate and share ideas while deepening their knowledge of microbiology and biotechnology.
