Swachh Bharat Abhiyan and Old Age Home Visit on the Occasion of NCC Day

Organizing Unit: 3 Maharashtra Girls Battalion NCC, Shivaji Science College, Nagpur
Venue: Medical College Square Area and Old Age Home, Nagpur

On November 22, 2025, NCC Cadets in Nagpur are scheduled to conduct a combined Swachh Bharat Abhiyan cleanliness drive and an old age home visit, focusing on community service in the Medical College Square area.

NCC cadets and ANO Lt. Shrutika Lokhande of Shivaji Science College with PI staff and Army officers celebrated NCC day with orphan kids and old aged people. The 3 Maharashtra Girls Battalion NCC Unit of Shivaji Science College celebrated NCC day with orphan kids and old aged people. The initiative highlights the crucial role of youth and NCC cadets in maintaining cleaner public spaces, aligning with local Nagpur sanitation drives. All the cadets of NCC cleaned up nearby premises and also made some posters to inform people.

The Key Planned Activities are Swachh Bharat Abhiyan: A cleanliness drive in and around the Medical College Square, featuring waste collection and sensitization on waste segregation and old age home visit: An outreach activity to support elderly residents, fostering social commitment and community welfare.

Objective:

The programme was organized to commemorate NCC Day and promote social responsibility among NCC cadets through community service activities. The objectives were:

- To contribute towards the Swachh Bharat Mission by maintaining cleanliness in public spaces.
- To create awareness regarding waste management and waste segregation.
- To foster compassion, social commitment, and respect for elderly citizens and orphan children.
- To strengthen the bond between NCC cadets and the local community.

Action Taken:

On 22 November 2025, NCC Cadets and ANO of Shivaji Science College, Nagpur along with PI Staff and Army Officers of the 3 Maharashtra Girls Battalion NCC, organized a combined Swachh Bharat Abhiyan and Old Age Home Visit as part of the NCC Day celebrations.

The programme commenced with a cleanliness drive in and around the Medical College Square area. NCC cadets actively participated in collecting waste materials, cleaning public spaces, and spreading awareness regarding proper waste disposal and waste segregation practices. Cadets also prepared and displayed informative posters carrying messages on cleanliness, environmental protection, and civic responsibility. Local residents were sensitized about the importance of maintaining hygienic surroundings and supporting the objectives of the Swachh Bharat Mission.

Following the cleanliness drive, the cadets visited an old age home and interacted with elderly residents. The NCC cadets spent quality time with the senior citizens, offering emotional support and companionship. As part of the NCC Day celebrations, the cadets, along with PI Staff and Army Officers, also interacted with orphan children and organized recreational activities to bring joy and encouragement to them.

The programme successfully promoted the values of selfless service, discipline, empathy, and social responsibility among the cadets while contributing positively to community welfare.

Outcomes:

- Public areas around Medical College Square were cleaned and made more hygienic.
- Awareness regarding cleanliness and waste segregation was created among local citizens.
- Elderly residents and orphan children received emotional support and encouragement.
- NCC cadets gained practical experience in community service and social outreach.
- The activity strengthened the spirit of social responsibility and nation-building among youth.

Conclusion:

The combined Swachh Bharat Abhiyan and Old Age Home Visit was successfully conducted with enthusiastic participation from NCC cadets. The programme reflected the true spirit of NCC by promoting community service, social awareness and humanitarian values. The initiative contributed to cleaner surroundings and brought happiness to elderly residents and orphan children, making the NCC Day celebration meaningful and impactful.
